

FADE IN:

We pan into the community of Happy Wheels - very picturesque. A sign reads: WELCOME TO OUR CITY. Below, the camera pans to an electronic ticker that reads: Population: 78,966

INT. UNDERGROUND TUNNEL - NIGHT

The team all roll along through a strange level/neighborhood. Little Cody is on the back of Jim's bike. Janet has a flag flying off the back of her cart that reads, "D.E.A.T.H.S." Stephen reads from a letter.

STEPHEN

We have to get down to this CPR class and get certified otherwise DEATHS can't help at the water park next week.

DENNIS

What does CPR stand for?

CHARLES

Female Body Inspector.

JANET

If they got free marshmallows, I'm in.

Janet shoves a handful of marshmallows in her mouth, and starts choking.

JIM

(excited)

You hear that Cody? Maybe next time you accidentally fall out of your seat we won't have to go directly to the emergency room.

DENNIS

Are you sure this underground tunnel is the best way to go?

STEPHEN

Totally, I wazed it.

He holds up his phone, which reads "Waze Tunnels." Janet punches herself in the chest and coughs out the marshmallow.

JANET

Janet vs. marshmallow... part two.

EXTREME CLOSE UP: She eats the slobbery marshmallow again. We see it mashing between her teeth. They approach three spinning spike balls that go up and down, like in the game.

CHARLES
(re: balls)
Oh, hell yeah!

JANET
Ewww, tacky much?

CHARLES
(disappointed)
You mean I'm not hallucinating?

He takes a bottle of pills and throws it.

STEPHEN
Come on Team, not much farther.

Stephen goes through them easily. Charles then gets sucked into one and gets mangled all over the place.

AHHHHHHH!!

He is flipped around the ball and reduced to human rubble. Charles' torso hits Dennis, and then knocks him back a little on to one of those trampoline things. It shoots him into the spikes above, sticking him there.

Dennis's MOWER, (still running) then drops down from the spikes, and lands squarely on Cody, shredding him.

JIM
Don't worry, Codster, I'm coming in to get you!

Jim jumps under the mower and meets the same fate.

AHHHH!!

They are both bloody heaps of meat. The mower then keeps going and pushes Janet toward the spinning spikes. Her groceries spill everywhere.

JANET
MY BUTTER SPRAY!

She puts her cart in reverse, trying to resist the power of the mower and get to her food.

She snatches a can of butter spray and sprays it directly in her mouth when a mine flies in and blows her in half. Her head rolls a good distance and into the grocery bag followed by the can of butter spray.

STEPHEN

Okay, guys. Just stay calm! I am going to take this class, learn how to save your lives, and then come back and save your lives!

ANGLE ON: The pile of body parts that used to be his friends. Exciting music plays as he cruises toward the CPR class.

CUT TO:

INT. CLASS - NIGHT

MONTAGE

* Stephen sits in the classroom next to another student. A TEACHER lectures as Stephen takes notes.

*Stephen practices on "Annie" by punching the dummy. The teacher gives him a thumbs up.

*The teacher draws a diagram as Stephen looks on. The diagram has two pictures. One is of a dead body, and it reads, "dead." And the other is of an alive person, and it reads, "alive." Stephen nods.

*Stephen tries to perform CPR on a VOLUNTEER and pushes a giant hole in his chest, crushing his organs.

*Graduation ceremony. The teacher calls out names.

TEACHER

Stephen Douglass.

Stephen, now in a cap and gown, crosses the front of the room on his segway, running several people over. Everyone claps.

STEPHEN

Sure, we're certified to practice CPR. But we're also certified... to be friends.

(remembers)

FRIENDS!? Oh no. I gotta go!

He takes off.

INT. UNDERGROUND TUNNELS - LATER

Stephen pulls up to the mangled carcasses that used to be his friends. He calls to the heavens as dramatic music plays.

STEPHEN
(emotional)
I'm too late! I'M TOO LATE,
DAMNIT! I'M TOO--

He then clutches his chest and falls dead of a heart attack. It seems like a tepid death which is why a giant steel wheel rolls by and crushes/mangles him. And then a ceiling of spikes shoots down and mashes his bits.

And then mines float in and obliterate what's left.

FADE TO MACHINIMA RED.
